Hill International Celebrates the Opening of its New Office in Austin

Posted on 09/10/2024 by Hill International

At Hill International, our mission is to continue growing a global team of technical experts who consistently exceed expectations through collaboration with clients, suppliers, and stakeholders. To that end, we are very excited to announce the grand opening of Hill's new office in Austin, TX!

As a global leader in program, project, and construction management, Hill has consistently delivered exceptional services to our clients for nearly 50 years. This new Austin office marks a significant expansion of our presence and capabilities in Texas--a milestone that marks a significant step forward in our mission.

A Strategic Location for Enhanced Service

Austin is known for its booming construction industry and rapid pace of urban development. This location was chosen not only for its proximity to key construction sites but also for its accessibility to our clients and partners. By positioning ourselves in the heart of the action, we can respond more quickly to project needs, ensuring that we are always a step ahead in providing top-notch services for our clients.

Expanding Our Team of Experts

With the opening of this new office, we are also expanding our team. We believe that the key to our success lies in the talent and expertise of our people. That is why we are bringing in experienced professionals from every sector within the industry. From project managers, estimators, and schedulers to engineers and certified construction managers, and field inspectors, our new team members bring a wealth of knowledge and a commitment to excellence that will further enhance our capabilities in servicing our clients in Central Texas.

Strengthening Client Relationships

One of the primary goals of opening this new office is to strengthen our relationships with existing clients while building new partnerships. We understand that successful construction projects are built on trust, communication, and collaboration. By being closer to our clients and more accessible than ever before, we aim to foster stronger, more productive relationships that lead to successful project outcomes.

Looking Ahead: The Future of Construction

As we open the doors to our new office, we are not just expanding our physical presence; we are also broadening our vision for the future of construction. This office represents a new chapter in our journey, one that is filled with opportunities for growth, innovation, and success. We are excited to take on new challenges, build lasting partnerships, and continue to set the standard for excellence in the industry.

In conclusion, the opening of our new Austin office is a significant milestone that will enable us to better serve our clients, support our team, and contribute to the industry in meaningful ways. We look forward to welcoming you to our new office and working together to build a brighter, more sustainable future.

Stay tuned for more updates from Hill's Texas team and join us as we embark on this exciting new journey!

We have built a team of internationally recognized industry experts, each one a specialist in their field. We employ this expertise to help you manage risk and deliver your vision.

FIRM PROFILE

Hill International provides program, project, and construction management services for clients in a range of sectors undertaking major construction projects across the world. Our services include cost engineering and estimating, quality assurance, inspection, scheduling, risk management, and advisory services.

We are the 4th largest project and construction management firm in the U.S., as featured in Building Design + Construction magazine. We are also ranked as the 7th largest overall U.S. construction management firm by Engineering News-Record magazine. Our team has participated in more than 90,000 project assignments with a total construction value of over $1 trillion.

Since 1976, we have developed the experience, expertise, and world-class talent that allows us to offer a deeper perspective on our client's projects. We can quickly and accurately identify the potential risks facing a project and provide recommendations on how to effectively navigate these risks.

We operate in more than 100 offices across 42 countries. Our regional teams have deep, intuitive local knowledge that helps our clients navigate any potential obstacles. We support this expertise with our wider team of internationally recognized experts.

Our focus as a business is project management, which means we are free of any potential design or contracting conflicts of interest. Our sole purpose is protecting our clients' needs, managing any potential risks, and delivering projects on time and within budget.

Together, we deliver the infrastructure of change.

HILL'S COMMITMENT TO INCLUSION, DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND AWARENESS

Inclusivity is one of Hill's core values. We recognize that the unique life experiences and perspectives of our employees and the communities in which we serve make our company stronger, more welcoming, and, ultimately, contribute positively to our bottom line. We also recognize, that for a company to enjoy these benefits, it must be inclusive in recruiting, hiring, retention, and promotions. Hill acknowledges that employees in diverse and inclusive workplaces feel more confident in sharing their ideas and adding value to their teams because they know their differences are respected and appreciated.

To fulfill Hill's mission to continue growing a global team of technical experts who consistently exceed expectations through collaboration with clients, suppliers, and stakeholders, Hill's Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Awareness (IDEA) Committee harnesses the power of our employees' individual backgrounds and insights to foster an environment that increases engagement and satisfaction, attracts the best talent, and captures the attention of the external community through our diverse culture.
